REVIEW

Ash Wednesday The distribution of ashes throughout the day was very well received.

A proposal will be submitted to parish council changing the name of the Social Hall to "Heritage Hall."

Tom Bruck is finishing the crosses to be used for the deceased to be installed in church.

Mark Minney has been issued a check to pay for the tabernacle stand. A thank you card will be sent from the Worship commission.

The homilies posted on the website is used on special occasions on a trial basis.

Discussion items

Fr. has submitted a request for an associate pastor.

There will no feet washing on Holy Thursday this year. The procession to the repository will take place.

We will try to get some high school students to assist carrying cross and hold it during the veneration on Good Friday. Church environment will take place on Holy Saturday with the blessing of the food at noon. There will be a solemn procession on Palm Sunday at the 9:30 Mass weather permitting. The stations of the cross from St Josephs are continually being refurbished. John would like to proceed with

"Peeking at the Pipes" sometime in the spring.

Next meeting April 30
